One Day Left!

Tomorrow is Giving Day

Are you ready?

Emily,

Medical Teams Giving Day is tomorrow! On September 6, we have 24 hours to help as many people as we can.

In honor of this special day, your gift DOUBLES to send 2X the loving, life-saving medical care. All gifts double up until 11:59 p.m. tomorrow or until we reach the match goal of $10,000. But, right now, you can get a head start and make sure your gift is one of the first to be matched!

MATCH MY GIFT NOW

Your generosity provides:

- An infant with urgent malaria treatment
- A pregnant mother with prenatal care
- A young boy with emergency nutrition
- And more...

You and the extraordinary Medical Teams community are bringing loving, life-saving medical care to people around the world.

Will you send 2X the life-saving medical care today?

Thank you for sharing your blessings and your generous heart with our neighbors around the world!

Martha Holley Newsome

P.S. If you are one of the first 100 people to give $50 or more, you'll receive a special present from us in the mail!
