

Two Days To Go!

It's almost here!

Medical Teams Giving Day is this Wednesday

Emily,

Medical Teams Giving Day is just 2 days away! On Medical Teams Giving Day, we have 24 hours to help as many people as we can.

Will you take one minute to send a gift that will help save lives?

Your gift will help a baby like Stella fight malaria. Your donation means a pregnant mother like Yatzil can get the prenatal care she needs. Your generosity means a little boy like Kingstone receives emergency nutrition.

You and the extraordinary Medical Teams community are bringing loving, life-saving medical care to people around the world.

Will you join us on Wednesday to give life-saving medical care?

Plus, if you are one of the first 100 people to give $50 or more, you'll receive a special giveaway.

Thank you for sharing your blessings and your generous heart with our neighbors around the world!
